

Fundraising Guide

Now that you have registered your school online, chosen an event date, and created a fundraising goal, all you have left to do is fundraise! This guide is to help you promote your event and fundraise prior to and on the day of your Inside Out for Autism event at your school.

Promoting Inside Out for Autism to Teachers, Students and Parents:

It is important to promote your Inside Out for Autism event with school faculty and staff, students and parents. Here are some suggestions to increase your event awareness:

- Put Inside Out for Autism event posters around the school
- Share the event and cause in monthly newsletters, the school's website, and PAC meetings
- Encourage teachers to talk about the event and autism with their classes.

Fundraising Ideas before the Event Day:

Get a head start on reaching your fundraising goal! Here are some ideas to get you started:

- Initiate a classroom fundraising challenge! See which classroom can raise the most money in your school-wide coin drive.
- Encourage faculty and staff members to register themselves, donate, and fundraise.
- Start a raffle basket fundraiser.
- Organize a bake sale! Bake your own sweet goodies or ask your local bakery for donations.

Fundraising Ideas for the Event Day:

Build the excitement around your Inside Out for Autism event by hosting a fundraiser on your event day! Here are some fun ideas:

- Bring a loonie to school! Encourage students in classrooms to bring a loonie or any spare change on the day of the event.
- Have a bake sale on the event day.
- Organize a fun day such as a Pizza Day.
